Re: Bryant A. Delaremore v. Zimmer, Inc., et al.
Case No. 1:17-cv-00918
Status on Client Contact
Request for Permission to Make Motion to Withdraw

Dear Judge Levy:

I am the attorney for the Plaintiff Bryant Delaremore. As per your instructions at our last conference I have diligently attempted to reach my client to no avail. In my efforts I took the following steps:

1. I called the client several times on the last known number I have for him, 718-926-1254. The phone does not ring and goes straight to voicemail. I left a final message on May 31, 2021;
2. On Monday, May 24, 2021, I emailed Robin Selby, a dear friend of Mr. Delaremore who I have communicated with in the past but received no reply (see email attached hereto as Exhibit "A");
3. On Monday, May 24, 2021, I emailed Charlene Scott, a person Bryant introduced me to as his sister and who I have communicated with in the past (although Mr. Delamore had since told me they were estranged) but received no reply (see email attached hereto as Exhibit "B"); and,
4. On Monday, May 24, 2021, I emailed his orthopedic surgeon's office explaining the situation and requesting contact information but received no reply (see email attached hereto as Exhibit "C").

In a final effort to protect my client's rights I would request that the Court reach out to him via his mobile number provided above.

At this point, regardless of whether Mr. Delaremore reappears, I respectfully request permission from the Court to withdraw from, and place a charging lien solely for my expenses on, his case.

Very truly yours,
/s/ Chris Cardillo, Esq.
Chris Cardillo, Esq.

Doctor,

The Court has instructed me to contact Mr. Delaremore's doctors in an attempt to locate him (I have not been able to contact him for at least a month). If you have seen him since he missed his surgery and/or if you have any contact information please provide at your earliest convenience.

Thank you,
Chris
